Welcome, Guests!

Welcome to Riverside! Thank you for joining us as our honored guest to worship God together today. Please stay with us briefly after the service so that we can welcome you personally. We meet together to praise God and to encourage one another. At Riverside, the Bible is our sole standard for worship and the Christian life. We would be happy to answer any questions that you may have about the Riverside church family. Please visit us again whenever you have the opportunity!

Loving Enemies

Jesus said to love your enemies (Mt 5:44). The reason this is difficult is because the people we typify as enemies are usually those whom we believe are worse people than us. We are good and they are bad. Or even if we aren't so good, they are worse. And it is hard to love someone you think is less deserving of love than yourself. However, this perception of our enemies is false. First, our enemies may be at odds with our values and inhibit our walk with Christ, but they are not less deserving of love. They are made in the image of God and Christ died for them as well. Second, our enemies are not worse than we are, as Paul quotes, "None is righteous, no, not one" (Rom 3:10). No one can stand before God on the merit of their own life. Only by Christ's merit can we stand before God. Perhaps it will be easier to love our enemies if we humbly consider both how, "while we were still sinners, Christ died for us" (Rom 5:10) and what our estate would be without Christ.— Cooper Atkeson

"But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work." 2 Timothy 3:14-17
