Welcome, Guests!

Welcome to Riverside! Thank you for joining us as our honored guest to worship God together today. Please stay with us briefly after the service so that we can welcome you personally. We meet together to praise God through Jesus Christ and to encourage one another. At Riverside, the Bible is our sole standard for worship and the Christian life. We would be happy to answer any questions that you may have about the Riverside church family. Please visit us again whenever you have the opportunity!

I Love You But...

“I love them, but I don't have to like them.” I've heard various expressions like this in my life and I believe there's a danger in this sentiment. It could be understood as an attitude of unconditional love. More often, I've seen it as a mask for bitterness and contempt, as if to say, “I'll be polite, but they don't have any value.” This cheapens love. It makes love to be an issue of decorum and etiquette but not about one's heart position towards another. Certainly, we don't get along well with all people – people can be very frustrating – but we should desire God's blessings for all people, even if they grind our gears.

Let's remember all of the health care workers and their families at Riverside: Rona Barrozo, Ashton Bosse, Jolene Fudge, Karen Wootton, Karla (Wootton) Carter, Debra Zink, and those around the nation and world, who face possible exposure to the virus each day. Also, remember Chad Lovelady, who is a police officer in Fredericksburg.

<sup>12</sup> Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, <sup>13</sup> bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. <sup>14</sup>And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. — Colossians 3:12-14, ESV

Sermon Scripture

<sup>1</sup>"I will extol you, my God and King, and bless your name forever and ever. <sup>2</sup>Every day I will bless you and praise your name forever and ever. <sup>3</sup>Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable. <sup>4</sup>One generation shall commend your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts. <sup>5</sup>On the glorious splendor of your majesty, and on your wondrous works, I will meditate. <sup>6</sup>They shall speak of the might of your awesome deeds, and I will declare your greatness. <sup>7</sup>They shall pour forth the fame of your abundant goodness and shall sing aloud of your righteousness."
